Monthly comment

Global equity markets experienced positive momentum in November, primarily driven by Donald Trump's election victory. Market participants are optimistic about anticipated tax cuts and a regulatory environment conducive to business, which is expected to spur transaction activity. Within this environment, the Partners Group Listed Investments SICAV - Listed Private Equity Fund (1 EUR) delivered a strong performance, rising by 8.5% in November, resulting in a year-to-date net return of 35%. Notably, all segments of the portfolio contributed positively, with private market managers as the top performers.

Apollo Global Management emerged as the leading performer for the fund. The global alternative asset manager is a strong candidate for inclusion in the S&P 500 at the upcoming December rebalancing and recently reported third-quarter earnings that exceeded expectations. Gross inflows grew by 27% in the past quarter, reaching USD 42 billion, and total assets under management now stand at USD 733 billion. Significantly, transaction activity accelerated during the third quarter, with Apollo deploying USD 76 billion - a remarkable 111% increase compared to the same period last year - bringing total deployments over the last twelve months to USD 248 billion.

HarbourVest Global Private Equity Limited also showed strong performance. Despite an impressive NAV track record with a compound annual growth rate of 13% over the last decade, the stock is currently trading at a discount to NAV of approximately 35-40%. Activist investor Metage Capital has communicated with shareholders, advocating for enhanced share buybacks. Given the substantial discount to NAV, such actions are highly accretive and support growth in NAV per share.
