Monthly comment

In May, global equity markets saw continued strong performance. The improving economic outlook and decreasing government bond yields supported the markets. Some rate cuts are expected later in the year, with timing differences between Europe and the US. The Partners Group Listed Investments SICAV - Listed Private Equity Fund had a successful month, achieving an approximately 3% return and bringing the year-to-date gain to 13%. The earnings season was better-than-expected, with solid fundraising and steady NAV growth. All segments showed growth, with alternative asset managers and PE vehicles leading the way as the top performers.

Intermediate Capital, one of Europe's leading debt investors, was the top performer, delivering solid results as fee-earning AUM increased by 11% and NAV increased by 15%. Management provided strong fundraising guidance for the next four-year period, aiming to raise over GBP 55 billion, which exceeds 55% of the current assets under management. The company also raised its dividend, marking the 14th consecutive annual increase.

HBM, a healthcare-focused investor, emerged as another top performer. Despite a challenging market environment for the healthcare segment, the company reported steady NAV and heightened transaction activity. Furthermore, its largest private equity portfolio holding, Swixx BioPharma, revealed a strategic acquisition to extend its operations into Latin America, and notably, one portfolio company was acquired by Johnson & Johnson at a valuation above the current value. Management maintains confidence and underscores the company's robust liquidity position, which can be leveraged to expand its portfolio companies or seize opportunities arising from market volatility.

Finally, CVC Capital Partners, the most recent addition to our portfolio, also delivered strong performance. In the first quarter, the private equity manager reported robust results, with fee-paying assets under management increasing by 47% year-over-year, and all flagship funds meeting or exceeding their targets. Despite a challenging transaction market, CVC reported a 12% increase in deployment activity and exits rose by over 60% over the past year. Management remains optimistic and anticipates a continued recovery in investment activity throughout 2024.
